WE LOVE THOSE MERIDEN COPS

But the Bridgeport Policemen Are Not Going to do a Thing to Them Tomorrow—Yes, They Are Not!

The first game in the State Police-man's league will be played tomorrow at Newfield Park, when the Meriden Cops will battle with the Park City Striders. Meriden has always been a stumbling block to the local billy welders, it being the opinion of the local team that if they get away from the Meridens tomorrow there will be nothing to the league but Bridgeport. It's no pipe that Bridgeport is considered a very good outfit. All of the players have seen semi-professional ball. While a number have played with the professionals, The Meriden crew has not that record to boast of, but they claim that their men are the real article and the pennant winners for 1909. This boast will get an awful smearing after the contest tomorrow, as Bridgeport with Tom Malone and Ike Williams, both of whom are to do the pitching, going good, with Tom Ivers to do the receiving clerk duty, there will be nothing to it but the shouting. And don't forget the fancy rooting. A special section of the grand stand has been reserved for the cops who cannot watch the preliminary fireworks, the select audience and see Tom Malone and Ike Williams warm up.

PENN'S OLDEST WOMAN DIES AT AGE OF 103.

(Special from United Press.)

Towanda, Pa., July 20.—Mrs. Eliza A. McKean, the oldest woman in western Pennsylvania, died here to-day in her 103rd year. Up to a short time before her death Mrs. McKean had been healthy and active. Death was the result of a general loss of vitality.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS.

New York, July 20.—The members of the National Association of Railroad Commissioners are being polled by direction of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, with a view of having them postpone the ante-meeting in this city on October 12, to November 16. If such a postponement can be arranged, the entire membership of the commission will in October hold hearings on the Pacific slope and through the entire inter-mountain territory.

FIRE BELLS RING MUCH FASTER NOW

Long Interval 3 Seconds Instead of 6-7-8 and Short One 1 Second Instead of 2-7-8.

MEN WAITED FOR BELL.

Taking no chances, Engine Company No. 4, on Madison avenue, took a long run to box 316 at Golden Hill and Middle streets, this morning at 8:30 o'clock, responding to a test alarm. The condition of Main street made the run difficult.

The electricians of the fire department have been speeding up the boxes and this morning at 8:40 o'clock the alarm at Golden Hill and Middle streets was tested. All the house circuits, that is the electric circuits ringing the gongs in the various engine houses, were cut out with the exception of No. 4's. The members of the company knew that the box was to be tested, but when the alarm came to their house gong it was believed that no chance should be taken, lest it be a real alarm. It was not until the apparatus arrived at the box that the drivers were notified of the test.

Since the arrival of the auto chemical the necessity of more rapid ringing in the boxes has been brought forcibly to the attention of the firemen. At every alarm the members of that company have to sit idly awaiting the end of the call to determine the location of the box. The horse driven apparatus is also always in readiness to depart for a fire long before the first round of the alarm is finished.

Up to now the alarms have been rung with a pause of 3 seconds between strokes and 7 1/2 seconds pause to indicate the digits. In the future the bell will ring with a second interval between the strike and three seconds long interval. The longest box in the city to ring takes under the old speed 58 seconds, nearly a minute. The same box will now take but 22 seconds to sound. It takes but five seconds, at the longest, to have the apparatus ready to dash out of the house. The saving of time in having the boxes ring faster is easily appreciated.

HUNGER STRIKE CAUSING ALARM

London Suffragettes Starving Themselves to Death in Holloway Jail.

ARE HALED AS MARTYRS

(Special from United Press.)

London, July 20.—The officials of Holloway jail, where the suffragettes arrested following the recent riots are confined, are to-day confronted by a serious situation, after the release last night of Florence Cooke and Gladys Roberts, two of the suffragettes, to prevent them from starving themselves to death. The jailers fear that deaths will result from the refusal of the suffragettes to eat. The released suffragettes are being hailed by their comrades as martyrs. Both are in a dangerous condition, Miss Roberts being so weak that she cannot stand. Her recovery is expected to take months.

Misses Roberts and Cooke, when taken to Holloway jail, insisted upon being treated as political prisoners. When they were locked up as common offenders, they rebelled, smashed the windows, broke the cell furniture and tore their prison clothing and assaulted the turnkey. The jailers thereupon isolated the two suffragettes in solitary confinement but they refused to eat. For six days they persisted in their refusal to eat. Yesterday they were taken from the jail where they were allowed to go, lest they die in jail. Owing to the ignorance of the two released women as to what took place outside during their term in jail they would not talk in detail of the "hunger strike." It is known however, that about a dozen more women are refusing to eat.

Clyde Liner Disabled. In a Choppy Sea

(Special from United Press.)

Sandy Hook, N. J., July 20.—Disabled in a choppy sea, the Clyde line steamer Carib, from North Carolina to New York, was sighted at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon by the navy tug Standish.

The Carib's propeller had worked loose and she was totally at the mercy of the sea, when the Standish came alongside and passed her a tow line. The Standish, with the liner in tow, arrived and anchored off Sandy Hook this morning and the Carib is now lying safely at anchor, waiting for a tug to bring her up to her dock in New York.

The Standish was bound from New London for Annapolis when she sighted the disabled liner of Barnegate. Lieutenant Walworth immediately left his course and picked up the Carib which he towed to Sandy Hook to-day and then left her to await the arrival of her own tugs, which have been summoned.

PROSECUTION OF FRENCH CARDINAL STIRS CATHOLICS

(Special from United Press.)

Paris, July 20.—The prosecution by the French government of Cardinal Andrieu, Archbishop of Bordeaux, promises the most serious consequences. The Cardinal, who is a member of the French parliament, has been charged with the crime of having renewed the unrest of the Catholics which slept for a time and the Cardinal is in receipt of a letter from the French government and other church dignitaries congratulating him upon his stand.

At the time Cardinal Andrieu took charge of affairs at Bordeaux he severely criticised the French anti-church laws and urged the priests and people in his diocese to disobey when they were antagonistic to the liberties of the church. His action was a breach of the civil law of 1906, promulgated by the opponents of the church at the time of the abrogation of the Concordat.

As a result of his utterances, Cardinal Andrieu was summoned before the civil courts but he refused to appear for trial and judgment will be taken against him by default. Several Bayonne church men and the Archbishop d'Auch were also fined. These and other minor affairs of the church and government have stirred religious France as she has not been stirred since the riotous controversies of 1896. Church men are convinced that a crisis is at hand and that the only means of combating the civil authorities is to follow the example of Cardinal Andrieu.
